

M. E. CONFERENCE.

THE ANNUAL SESSION OPENED IN DANVILLE YESTERDAY.

Jointing Committees and Boards Appointed—The Calvin Legacy Discussed—Action Under Minute 20—Reports Read.

(Special telegram to the Dispatch.)
DANVILLE, VA., November 22.—The one hundred and eleven session of the Virginia Annual Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, met here this morning in Main-Street church, the first day of the session being devoted to the reading of the minutes of the last year's session, and the election of officers for the coming year. The Bishop read the first chapter of I. Peter and the conference sang the hymn beginning "And are we yet alive?" Bishop Granbery then offered prayer, invoking the presence of the Holy Spirit and the blessing of God upon the members of the conference, the work and all the churches entered into. The roll of membership was called, and more than two thirds of the members responded to their names.
Dr. Paul Whitehead was elected secretary, and Dr. R. S. Lambeth and Rev. Ernest Stevens assistants.

PROPOSED CHANGE.
Dr. A. G. Brown, of the Joint Board of Finance, proposed a change in the manner of making the financial reports, the amounts raised for the "foreign-mission debt" may be reported in the minutes, and the suggestion called for considerable discussion, but no definite action was taken by the conference.
The usual standing committee and conference reports were appointed.
A committee of three to nominate a committee on conference relations was ordered, as was also a committee on removals to the General Conference.

FLOURISHING CONDITION.
A financial and statistical statement from the general book agent at Nashville, Tenn., was read, showing the condition of the work in a flourishing condition, with a larger cash surplus than at the close of any previous conference.

The secretary of the Board of Missions at Nashville submitted a similar document as to missions.
Dr. J. R. Brock, Presiding Elder of Greensboro District, and Rev. W. R. Ware, L. M. Brower, and W. M. Bagby, of the Western North Carolina Conference, were introduced to the conference by the Bishop.

A communication from the general synod school superintendent and one from the Committee on General Conference Extension was referred to the joint Board of Finance.

CHURCH EXTENSION.
A communication from the secretary of the General Board of Church Extension, located at Louisville, Ky., was read and referred to the conference Board of Church Extension.

The report showed receipts to be $702,492.15; churches added, 240, at a total cost of $20,758.35.

A memorial from the West Virginia Conference in regard to the Calvin legacy, praying that the Virginia Conference would contribute its share to the fund, was read and referred to a joint board of finance.

MINISTERS CONTINUED.
The Bishop called minute question 20, and the following preachers were called on to read the minutes of the last year's session: J. H. Edwards, R. N. Crooks, John McClellan, W. A. Robinson, H. W. Crocker, J. B. Day, D. P. Williams, J. R. Wagoner, T. P. Wise, J. P. Franklin, J. J. Hayton, E. P. Wilson, Thomas M. Beckham, E. M. Jordan, and J. M. Wallace.

The following were continued as superintendents: Rev. C. H. Bowles, and J. W. Hildreth.

All of the ministers in Richmond, West Virginia, and the surrounding districts, were examined of character. The reports showed the work on these districts to be in good condition, all the conference collections having been paid, and new churches built, and many accessions to the Church.

TO ACTIVE WORK.
Rev. R. S. Lambeth, D. D., and J. R. Stevens, were at their own request restored to active work.

Dr. Whitehead reported only one death in the three districts for the year, and was appointed a committee on memorials.

Under the call of minute question 20 a tender and pathetic scene was witnessed, as Rev. J. A. Hildreth, the oldest member of the conference, he being 83 years of age and unable to attend the conference, was called on to read the minutes of the last year's session, and the conference sang "Shall we gather at the river?"

Conference was then dismissed with the doxology and benediction.

VACCINATION AT RADFORD.
Arrest of a Young Kentuckian on a Charge of Burglary—Sent On.

(Special telegram to the Dispatch.)
RADFORD, VA., November 22.—The city authorities have quarantined the place and passed a rigid vaccination ordinance, on account of the prevalence of small-pox in towns west of here. There is no sickness in Radford, and our authorities are confident that the disease will be kept away.

Colonel John Hampton Hoge's wife passed through Radford this morning on her way to El Paso to join her husband. She was accompanied by a body of men claiming to have come from Kentucky, and was arrested yesterday. This morning the mayor sent him on to the grand jury, and the case will be heard at the next session of the court.

The case of the belle of Petersburg, and the case goes up to the Circuit Court on appeal.

A Virginia Belle The Bride.

An Impromptu Wedding Ceremony in Washington on Tuesday.

"Miss Davis, Va.," registered at the Shoreman Tuesday morning. She was accompanied by a gentleman who was known as "W. V. Denby, Va." A little later a handsome young man came in and registered as "W. V. Denby, Va." Then he went out and got a horse and buggy, and Rev. Dr. Smith, of St. John's, was called.

A few minutes later, says the Post, young Mr. Denby returned to the desk, picked up the card and with a bold, brave air wrote after his name, "and wife."

She is the wife of the belle of Petersburg, and with her equally beautiful sister, has been the belle of half the young men in the State. Mr. Denby comes of one of the wealthiest families in the city of Petersburg, and has been the young lady's fiancé for a year.
